America & the Holocaust

Instructions: Use information from the “Deceit & Indifference (abridged transcript)”, “America & the Holocaust” and your own thinking to label yourself on the Agree-Disagree spectrum for each of the following 5 Agree-Disagree statements.

- (1) The United States is complicit in the Nazi persecution of European Jews. The United States did far too little to provide sanctuary for Jewish refugees of Nazi persecution.

Strongly Agree Agree (Kind of) Disagree (Kind of) Strongly Disagree

- (2) The United States was justified in not seeking to disrupt the Nazi machine of genocide by bombing concentration camps. It is unlikely that such action would have significantly impeded Nazi extermination efforts.

Strongly Agree Agree (Kind of) Disagree (Kind of) Strongly Disagree

- (3) The United States should have bombed rail lines to/from concentration camps.

Strongly Agree Agree (Kind of) Disagree (Kind of) Strongly Disagree

- (4) The United States should be proud of the role it played in stopping the holocaust. Though American interests were not directly threatened by the Holocaust, the United States sacrificed blood and treasure to stop Nazi atrocity.

Strongly Agree Agree (Kind of) Disagree (Kind of) Strongly Disagree
